

JD Edwards EnterpriseOne Mfg Costing & Accounting Rel 9.2

Setting Up General Options

- Describing Costing Methods
- Defining Cost Components

Generating Product Material Costs

- Creating Item Costs and Bills of Material
- Running a Simulated Cost Rollup for Material Costs

Generating Product Labor and Machine Costs

- Running a Simulated Cost Rollup for Labor and Machine Costs

Using Additional User-Defined Costs

- Identifying Cost Extras
- Entering Standard Rate and Factor Codes

Generating Product-Frozen Costs

- Running the Frozen Cost Update
- Updating Frozen Cost Information

Identifying Additional Costing Options

- Modifying Costs

Explaining Unique Costing Requirements for Other Discrete Manufacturing Activities

- Discussing Costing for Batch and Percent Bills of Material
- Explaining Costing Requirements for an Outside Operation
- Defining Costing Requirements for Configured Items

Explaining Costing Requirements for Process Manufacturing

- Describing Process Manufacturing
- Setting Up for Costing in Process Manufacturing

Defining the Accounting Fundamentals

- Explaining Account Structures
- Using AAls

Creating Costs Through the Work Order Life Cycle

- Creating Manufacturing Work Order Transactions
- Creating Manufacturing Journal Entries

Using Variance Accounting

- Explaining Variance Accounting
- Creating Manufacturing Variance Journal Entries

Using Actual Costing for Product Costs

- Setting Up for Actual Costing

Capturing Actual Costs in Manufacturing Accounting

- Using Actual Costing in Manufacturing Accounting

