

---

Table of Contents

One-Day Workshop: Managing & Motivating Gen Z Employees

---

1. Introduction to the Gen Z Workforce

- Who is Gen Z?
- Key values, expectations, and work attitudes
- How Gen Z differs from previous generations

2. Understanding the Gen Z Mindset

- Psychological and social influences
- Digital-first thinking and attention patterns
- Purpose, identity, and authenticity at work

3. Communication Styles that Work with Gen Z

- Preferred communication channels
- Feedback expectations: frequency and tone
- Building trust through transparency

4. Motivation Drivers for Gen Z Employees

- Intrinsic vs. extrinsic motivation
- Career growth, learning, and skill development
- Meaningful work and social impact

5. Leadership Approaches for Managing Gen Z

- Coaching vs. command-and-control leadership
- Empowerment, autonomy, and inclusion
- Managing expectations and accountability

6. Engagement and Retention Strategies

- Creating a culture of belonging
- Recognition and rewards that matter to Gen Z

- Flexibility, well-being, and work-life integration

7. Managing Performance and Productivity

- Setting clear goals and outcomes
- Managing distractions in a digital environment
- Handling underperformance constructively

8. Conflict Management and Difficult Conversations

- Common workplace conflicts with Gen Z
- Addressing sensitivity and emotional intelligence
- Turning feedback into growth opportunities

9. Building a Future-Ready Workplace for Gen Z

- Continuous learning and upskilling
- Leveraging technology and innovation
- Preparing Gen Z for leadership roles

10. Action Planning and Takeaways

- Key learning summary
- Manager's action checklist
- Commitment to implementation