About Koenig's CEO:

In November of 1993, Koenig was established in Patel Nagar, which is one of the most crowded part of Delhi, with a dream to create the best coaching centre for IT training by Rohit Aggarwal.

Rohit Aggarwal is the CEO and Founder at Koenig Solutions Ltd., and is the one responsible in raising Koenig into being one of the best IT training solutions in the world.

Rohit is a B.tech CSE (Computer Science and Engineering) graduate from the Punjab Engineering College, Chandigarh. Thanks to his deep interests in Computers and Maths, he himself was responsible in building a mini ERP for the sake of the SME sector.

He started with Education Toursim, which is currently a massive industry on its own, and now focusses on MOOC (Massive Open Online Courses) by utilizing the IT talent currently available in India to carry out of a method known as Flip Classroom, which allows to create a new way of learning, similar to what was done by Offshore Training a couple of years ago.

Not just business, but philosophy and social upliftment are also fields of great interest for Rohit. Koenig was awarded the Microsoft Citizenship Partner of the year award in 2009, for his mastered efforts to reduce the drop-out rates from Government Schools.
