THE MAGAZINE OF THE CORPORATE WORLD

July 6-19, 2015

Delhi-based Koenig Solutions has emerged as one of the largest IT training companies in the country. It currently boasts of the world's largest offshore IT training facility at its Delhi campus where it has 70 classrooms and 30 testing stations and provides end-to-end solutions including accommodation. Moreover, it has four other centres, one each in Bangalore, Goa, Shimla and Dehradun. Koenig has also opened a centre in Dubai to meet the ever-growing demand of its customers in the Middle East region. Serving customers in over 50 countries across the globe, the company is an authorised training partner for big names like Microsoft, Cisco, Oracle, SAP, Novell, Adobe,

Apple, Android, Symantec and others. Backed by a pool of 300-odd full time corporate trainers, the company is generating around 80 per cent of its revenue from its offshore training segment where it has recently also added online training. "Over the years, we have evolved as an innovative and quality training organisation which thrives for meeting customers' expectations in all possible manners. Going forward, our online segment will play a key role in driving our overall business," says Rohit Aggarwal, founder and CEO, Koenig Solutions. ♦
