

IndiaTechonline

Your guide to Information Technology in India

From left: Kiran Rajput, Manager Education Sales-Oracle India; Rohit Aggarwal-CEO & Founder, Koenig Solutions Ltd; Chandranath Bhatla- Head Academy Outsourcing Office, Cognizant India and Tejasvi Kumar, Senior Technology Strategist-Microsoft India at the launch of the Bangalore centre of Koenig, February 7 2014

Corporate training veteran Koenig opens new centre in Bangalore

Bangalore February 10, 2014 -Global leaders in off-shore IT Training, Koenig Solutions, has expanded its India reach by launching a state of the art IT training and certification campus in Bangalore.

This will be Koenig's seventh training centre globally and also the first which is focused totally on the domestic IT sector. With this facility launch Koenig has created a new milestone in India's silicon-valley. It is truly the first world class level facility for globally acknowledged IT courses and certifications in India.

Says Rohit Aggarwal, Koenig's CEO and Founder: "We were being persuaded by our global corporate customers in particular, to open up a larger Koenig facility in the city and we are happy that we have been able to deliver to their expectations like we always strive to do. We also take the opportunity to reveal our 'Step Forward' vision for the next 10 years of Koenig, complete with a totally new logo and new brand identity. Koenig's success has been a result of great team work and I express my deepest gratitude towards the winning team at Koenig for our continued success."

EMC, Infosys, TCS, COLT, Cognizant, IBM, NTT data, Schneider Electric, Century link, Thomson Reuters, Accenture, Sonata Software and Intuit are among corporates who have entrusted their employee training to Koenig. The Bangalore centre aims to train and certify up to 3000 IT professionals in high-end courses related to Cloud, DataAnalytics, Networking, Information Security technologies among others.

The new campus apart from being a completely green building will also house as many as 24 training rooms with a seating capacity of 136 students at a time including five rooms dedicated to the concept of Live Virtual Classrooms (LVC training). Designed by IDP (Interior Design Planning), the centre has been built on a total area of 18135 sq.ft. at a cost of Rs 30 million. More than 100 IT courses can be availed at the Koenig Bangalore centre.

Koenig is an authorized training partner of Microsoft, Cisco, Oracle, VMware, Red Hat, Novell, EC Council, Adobe, Check Point, PRINCE2, Zend, EMC, Citrix, Linux Professional Institute and Comp TIA and the authorized testing center for Prometric, VUE and Novell.

Koenig already has centres in Delhi, Goa, Shimla and Dehradun.