

Koenig Moti Nagar campus in Delhi enters Limca Book of Records as biggest in India

New Delhi, March 19, 2014: The Moti Nagar campus in Delhi of India-headquartered global IT trainer Koenig Solution has been recognized as the country's largest offshore IT training campus. Spread over 22,000 sq ft, the Moti Nagar campus houses 70 classrooms, 30 hi-tech testing stations, a foreign currency exchange counter, a reflexology centre, in-house dining, shopping, medical facilities, cafeterias as well as a prayer room for students.

The recognition has come by way of the Limca Book of Records.

Says Rohit Aggarwal, CEO and Founder, Koenig Solutions: "We are elated to have been recognized by the eminent Limca Book of Records. This is a testimony to our constant endeavor to make India a world class IT training hub and provide our customers training in niche areas such as cloud, virtualization, analytics and information security technologies among others with a vision to make them globally employable."

Koenig has already trained more than 20,000 students from more than 50 countries since its year of inception, with a trainer pool that is now 300 strong.

Limca Book of Records is a record book of Indian origin. It was first published in 1990, and is the Indian equivalent to the Guinness Book of World Records
